Martin Poss Set To Take Over Post Of Supervisor

Martin A. Poss, San Mateo florist and civic leader who Tuesday was appointed supervisor to fill the unexpired term of Fred E. Beer, will be sworn into office some time before the next meeting of the board of supervisors, Apr. 17, County Clerk William H. Augustus said Wednesday.

Exact date of the swearing in has not been set. Augustus received confirmation of Poss' appintment Tuesday afternoon from Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan.

Poss replaces Beer, who was named county controller following the death of Thomas J. Kane. Poss' term as supervisor will expire Jan. 1, 1947.

Principal aspirants for the post were Poss and Richard McAllister, San Mateo city councilman and labor leader. Backers of both men brought considerable pressure on Governor Warren for the appointment.

Edward R. McDonald, acting chairman of the board of supervisors, said today that "I feel confident Mr. Poss will co-operate with the other members of the board. He has had considerable experience and will fit into the picture very nicely."

Poss, when interviewed asserted, "I will do my utmost to work in harmony with the other members of the board to the best interest of the country's citizens."

He also stated he will remain as chairman of the selective service board of San Mateo. In June, 1942, Poss resigned from his membership of the San Mateo City Council to give his full attention to draft board matters, also declaring that he was "endeavoring to give as much time as possible to other war defense work."

Had he continued as council member, his term would have expired this month. The first term Poss served on the San Mateo City Council was 1927-31. He ran for office again in April, 1937, and was elected with the highest vote a councilman had ever received in San Mateo. He was re-elected in the April, 1941 election and resigned his post a little over a year later.

The new supervisor is a member of the San Mateo County Planning Commission. He served as manager of the San Mateo County Fiesta in 1936 and has been a member of the County Mosquito Abatement District. He was foreman of the 1933-34 grand jury and is a former president of the San Mateo Chamber of Commerce.

Poss has been a resident and business man in San Mateo for the past 33 years. He is a nursery man and florist and maintains a greenhouse and retail store at 346 North Ellsworth Ave., San Mateo, where he also makes his home. He also has a retail flower shop at 1403 Burlingame Ave.

He is a past exalted ruler of the San Mateo lodge of Elks and a past president of the San Mateo Rotary Club. He has also served as president of the Pacific Coast Horticultural Society.

Poss is a native of Ohio. He came to California in 1910 and was employed on the Crocker estate in San Mateo for three years. Following that he established his own business.

His wife is the former Sara Bowcott of West Virginia. They have one daughter, Constance, who is now assisting her father in his florist business.

$500 Damage to Home In San Carlos Fire

Fire of an unknown origin Tuesday afternoon caused approximately $500 damage to the home of Mrs. Fred Duncan at 1450 Chestnut St. in San Carlos, firemen there declared.

The blaze destroyed bunk beds, a chair and caused considerable smoke damage in a bedroom, firemen who were at the scene more than an hour, said.

PLAN AHEAD FOR 194X LIVING . . .

Settle these Questions
for Complete Comfort and Lasting Satisfaction

What type of gas furnace is best fitted to your home heating demands? How will your gas heating equipment cope with unusually cold weather? Where will the furnace registers and cold air returns be placed? And will furniture placement be affected by the heat outlets in the home?

Yes, it pays to plan your heating system in the home carefully. Such careful planning can eliminate chances of discomfort and at the same time give you heating that is a perfect job to live with and costs less to use.

Before you plan your new home too definitely or remodel your present one, be sure to read and clip magazine articles and booklets about combination furnace-playrooms, and the blower-type gas furnace that fits compactly in closets or in the attic. When these new and better appliances become available, your heating contractor will be able to supply you. He can also help you with your planning.

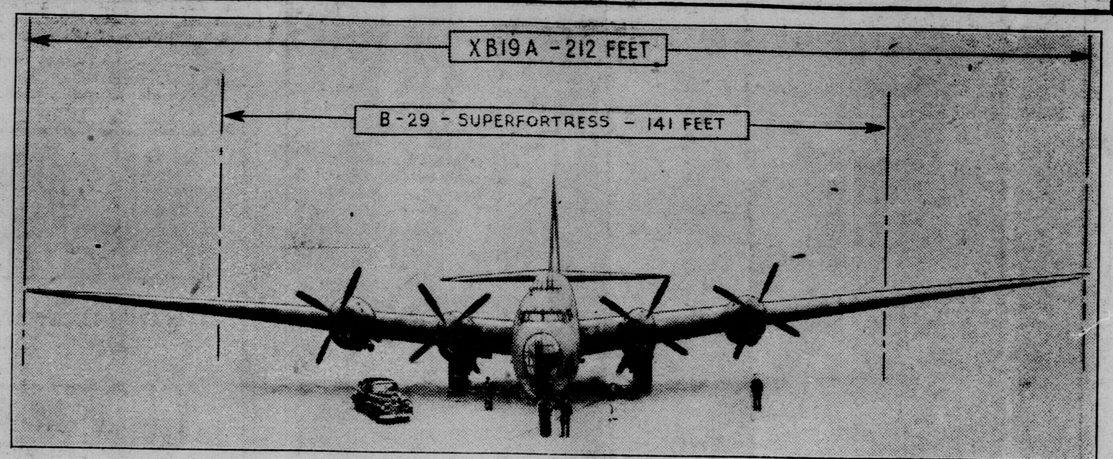
World's Largest Bomber Gets New Power Plant



HERE IS the largest experimental bomber in the world—the Army's XB-19A—which has just been fitted with new, more powerful engines by the Fisher Body Division of General Motors. The plane's power, range and load-carrying capacity have been stepped up considerably by the installation of liquid-cooled Allison engines. Installation of the engines, requiring construction of new, longer nacelles, was begun by Fisher Body at Romulus Army Air Field near Detroit and completed at its Cleveland No. 2 plant. Bigger than a B-29 Superfortress, the sky mammoth has a wing spread of 212 feet and length of 150 feet, compared with the B-29 wing span of 141 feet and length of 98 feet.

South County Paper Drive Next Sunday

The South County's most ambitious waste paper collection campaign will be undertaken Sunday by Boy Scout troops and Cub packs from Redwood City to East Palo Alto. City Salvage Chmn. Frank DePatta announced today that four freight cars will be spotted at the Redwood City siding to cary away the vital war salvage material.

Two carloads is the maximum collected in any previous drive.

DePatta explained that the North Fair Oaks Scouts in conjunction with the Community Church plans to collect a carload of its own, and requested that a special car be spotted for them.

A similar request came from the scouts in the Ravenswood-East Palo Alto district.

Two cars have been allocated for the Redwood City troops.

The cars will be open from Friday to Monday inclusive, DePatta announced, and any volunteer contributors may bring their bundled paper to the siding on any of those days.

Board Votes New Office

San Mateo County Board of Supervisors Tuesday afternoon approved the establishment of a county service office and the appointment of a service officer and personnel.

The office was established on motion of Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch and second of Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey. Supervisor Henry W. Edmonds, who had been appointed by the board to study the advisability of establishing the office, recommended that the department be formed.

The new department will go into effect at the beginning of the next fiscal year, July 1. Suggested salary was $250 a month (including $20 a month war bonus) for the service officer and $180 a month for an assistant. Edmonds also suggested a capital outlay of $1000.

Twenty-two counties in the state already have service officers it was pointed out. The office will acquaint veterans and service men with their rights, claims, etc. The department will function through the board of supervisors. The service officer and assistant will be civil service positions.

The supervisors adopted a resolution similar to one already adopted by several cities in the county urging the State Highway Commission to include improvement of El Camino Real and other supplemental routes in its planning program. The resolution states that El Camino Real from Redwood City to San Francisco is inadequate. Similar resolutions have been adopted by Redwood City, San Carlos, San Mateo, Hillsborough, San Bruno, South San Francisco and Daly City.

Easter Reunion For Cousins Here

Easter Sunday reunited two well-known local cousins following a separation of more than four years. Boatswain Mate 2/c Marshall Upton of San Carlos flew home Saturday from the Dutch East Indies where he had been stationed for 18 months.

Seabee Upton is the son of the late E. D. Upton and Mrs. Olive Upton, who owns the San Carlos Cleaners in Redwood City.

At Half Moon Bay Monday a family dinner honored the Seabee and his cousin, Everett Upton, who arrived home last month following three years of internment at Bilibid Prison.

Everett is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Upton of Half Moon Bay. Marshall, 28, is a graduate of Sequoia High School. He has a 32-day leave. He worked for his parents prior to joining the Seabees 28 months ago.

Veteran Describes Disillusion In Returning to Wartime America

From the war cauldron of Europe comes an ex-school teacher wearing a combat infantryman's badge and a Purple Heart. He is PFC F. F. Blauer of Denver, and he tells the same stark story of disillusion that was carried home by the veterans of World War I.

Liberation? It is a word turned bitter on the tongues of the soldiers who are doing the "liberating" and of the civilians being "freed."

"It's a bloody, ghastly mess and the whole shooting match isn't worth one finger of an American soldier's hand."

Yalta? Possibly the groundwork for this country's most serious mistake.

Postwar planning for Europe? Uncle Sam is playing Don Quixote and charging the greatest windmill he ever took on.

"We're riding full tilt at something we don't know anything about," contends Private Blauer.

The thoughtful soldier, convalescing at Dibble Hospital, spoke plainly and seriously Tuesday at a meeting of the Redwood City Exchange Club, and after filling his alloted half hour stayed on for another to answer questions from puzzled listeners.

He was a volunteer for the civil government service, but Uncle Sam handed him a rifle and told him to "go get 'em." Blauer went through Normandy, Paris and the Siegfried Line with the 28th Division, and was wounded before his outfit was decimated at the Bastogne bulge.

While in England his special assignments included lecturing to troops about hygiene and finance.

On the side he lectured a bit of history at Oxford. He speaks some German and was able to converse with the imported German inhabitants of Normandy. He had friends in Paris and was able to acquire an insight into the psychology of the people there.

"I'm not glad to come back to hear about the things that are happening to other soldier's wives, or the things I hear about the black market," he said. "But I am glad to break out of the soldier world to rub elbows with people who are being real Americans. I want you to realize how important you are going to be in keeping the stability of postwar America."

He explained that most of the soldiers coming back have a "slant we should not have." He warned that the best Americans are over there and the best will stay there.

"Most people are too good to us who are coming back," he warned. "Many of us get the impression that the United States is full of good things we didn't know before. Some of us think they are all free. Those who come back later will resent us who came home early and got the 'gravy'—especially when the 'gravy' thins out."

Blauer scoffed at the postwar plans for "educating" the children of France.

"There are no children of France," he declared. "There is no French nation."

He explained that the children of France were herded into Germany to learn to become good Nazis, while whole blocks of Polish, German and Russian people were transplanted into the geographical limits of what once was France. France ceased to exist as a nation one year after the German occupation, he declared.

Normandy was occupied largely by transplanted Germans who were given land, livestock and seed free. They grew all they could and the German army took the surplus. The Americans arrived, destroyed farms, livestock and crops in the necessities of combat.

In Paris the populace hailed the Americans, but the girls refused to bestow their kisses with equal generosity on the British Tommy or the French soldier who fought their way in with the Yanks. Why? The Americans had plenty of money, Blauer charged, and the welcome was a shoddy thing. The Frenchman, he insisted, will sell anything for money.

The people in the cities have suffered, but in the countrysides there has been plenty of fuel and substantial food.

In Germany, he recalled, the populace of one community hurled stones and refuse at the American columns.

To many Germans, he said, Hitler is Diety,, father, brother, and best friend combined in one entity. In his opinion the Nazi is just as fanatical as the Japanese.

As for the postwar world, Blauer said it was his belief that there is not one in one hundred soldiers who does not want to get out and stay out of Europe.

Blauer was introduced by John Garland, chairman of Tuesday's Exchange Club meeting.

S/Sgt. J. Montoro Wins High Honors

For meritorious achievement while participating as a gunner in an attack on a railroad bridge in July 24, 1944, two days before he was taken prisoner by the Germans, S/Sgt. John Montoro of Redwood City has been awarded the Air Medal.

This was reported today by his brother, Edward. The medal will be presented to a member of Sergeant Montoro's family during ceremonies at Hamilton Field in the near future. The 25-year-old soldier was reported missing in action on July 26, 1944 and in September, his family learned that he was a prisoner.

Montoro is the son of Mr. Joseph Montoro of 108 Linden St. He entered the service nearly four years ago and after receiving his aerial gunner's wings, flew submarine patrol in the Atlantic. Later he was a gunnery instructor at the Greenville, S. C., Army Air Base. He is a graduate of Sequoia High School and was manager of the Willow Market prior to entering the service.

He has two other brothers, Tony in the navy and Raymond who was recently honorably discharged from the navy. Two sisters, Mrs. Mary Martinez, and Frances Montoro, also live in Redwood City.

Two Large Realty Sales Recorded

Bertha G. Bernstein has sold her residence at 228 West Third Ave., San Mateo, to Genevieve Davidson for an indicated price of $30,000. The deed was recorded at request of California Pacific Title & Trust Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Munkdale have purchased property on the southwest corner of Broadway in Millbrae Highlands from Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard L. Haskell for an indicated price of $25,000. San Mateo County Title Co. requested the recording of the deed.

Peterson Fights Building Proposal For Courthouse

County Executive Frederick Peterson Tuesday objected to the plan of a group of county officials to acquire the block in back of the courthouse to house a number of county offices and said he would carry his fight further by recommending to the board of supervisors that the plan be denied "at the proper time."

Peterson contended that the courthouse should not be spread over the city, and said the present site should be utilized to house the offices in one block.

County officials at a meeting on Mar. 23, at which Peterson was present, agreed to tear down the courthouse dome and abandoned the idea of rebuilding or repairing the old unit between the two annexes, and they requested architects to proceed with sketch plans indicating the best way to provide for additional office space.

Two main plans made at the meeting of the supervisors, County Board of Architects and County Planning Commission and Peterson were:

1. To add another story to the rear annex of the building.
2. To construct new buildings on the block in back of the courthouse bounded by Middlefield Rd. and Marshall, Hamilton and Bradford Sts.

Peterson said he believed the plan to extend part of the courthouse across the street was too extravagant. His idea is to have a continuation of the three-story building to the rear and make all floors on the same level. At the present time the front annex is three stories, the old unit of the building is two stories and the rear annex is one story.

Peterson estimated that it would cost approximately $900,000 to move offices across the street, while he said he believed offices could be constructed on the present site for about half that amount.

Meantime, the board Tuesday continued until their next meeting action on the proposed exchange of property for the proposed new juvenile home. The exchange has the approval of the County Probation Committee, Juvenile Court Judge A. R. Cotton and County Executive Peterson.

The supervisors approved a contract between the San Mateo County Probation Department, and the Kern County Juvenile Forestry Camp for Boys whereby this county may send juvenile wards to the camp for $35 a month. Supervisors Henry W. Edmonds and Thomas L. Hickey plan to visit the camp, however, to further determine the advisability of sending wards there.

Three juveniles already have been sent to the camp, Probation Officer John S. Cowgill reported. Supervisor Edmonds took exception to the policy of various departments of taking action in such matters on its own before bringing it before the supervisors.

Cowgill's request to transfer $1200 from the unbudgeted reserve to the probation department to carry on work for the remainder of the fiscal year was granted, but Supervisor Edmonds said he would make a thorough study of the department and other departments making such requests.

A request by Atty. Ernest Wilson for the board to approve the reorganization of the Lomita Park Sanitary District, so it can consolidate with other districts was approved. Wilson said a meeting will be held Tuesday to set up procedure for the consolidation of the Capuchino and Lomita Park Sanitary Districts.

W. T. Watkins, secretary of the Lomita Park Sanitary District, said it would be beneficial to reorganize the district. There were no objections voiced to the reorganization.

The matter of a traffic hazard on Bayshore Hwy. at San Bruno Ave. was referred to the County Traffic Safety Commission for study and recommendation. The San Bruno Chamber of Commerce had urged that a traffic signal be placed at the intersection.

County School Districts Get Million From State

The school districts of San Mateo County are receiving $1,312,615 in direct aid from the state treasury for the current fiscal year, California Taxpayers' Assn. said today, making public the third section of its study of state payments to local governments in California. In addition to aid from the state, property tax levies for the school districts in the county amount to $2,410,630 for the current fiscal year.

The state apportioned $814,938 for the 12,430 elementary pupils in average daily attendance credits to the county, $454,907 for the 5064 high school average daily attendance, and $42,770 for 453 junior college attendance.

Menlo Park Roof Fire Causes $400 Damage

Damage approximating $400 was done to the home of Walter Sjosten of 1330 Mill St., Menlo Park, Eunday at 2:07 p.m. when sparks from the chimney ignited a shingle roof, Menlo Park fireman said.

The blaze was reported to firemen by neighbors across the street from the Sjosten home.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Scouts, Cub Scouts and Senior Scouts will stage the "Big Push" for all old newspapers and magazines in a city-wide collection next Sunday, Apr. 8. The drive is in cooperation with the General Eisenhower-Boy Scout nation-wide effort to salvage waste paper.

Local residents are urged to gather their old newspapers, books, magazines, cardboard boxes and cartons, wrapping paper and waste-paper scraps to aid the Scouts in their collection. All paper should be bundled or placed in a container and tied securely with twine, Chief Exec. E. A. Barrer explained.

Scouts will individually strive to account for 1000 pounds of paper in the collection and thus qualify for the General Eisenhower medal award being given for this service. Troops will also attempt to qualify for the General Eisenhower trophy being given. The trophy is a large caliber shell container actually used at the western front and bearing a citation from General "Ike" himself.

U.S. VICTORY WASTE PAPER CAMPAIGN

SAVE

Cub Pack 22 Joins Drive

Cub Pack 22 has joined with the 15 other Scout Troops and Cub Packs of Redwood City and Woodside in collecting paper for the all-out city drive Sunday, it was announced today. Pack 22 is sponsored by the Mount Carmel Holy Name Society.

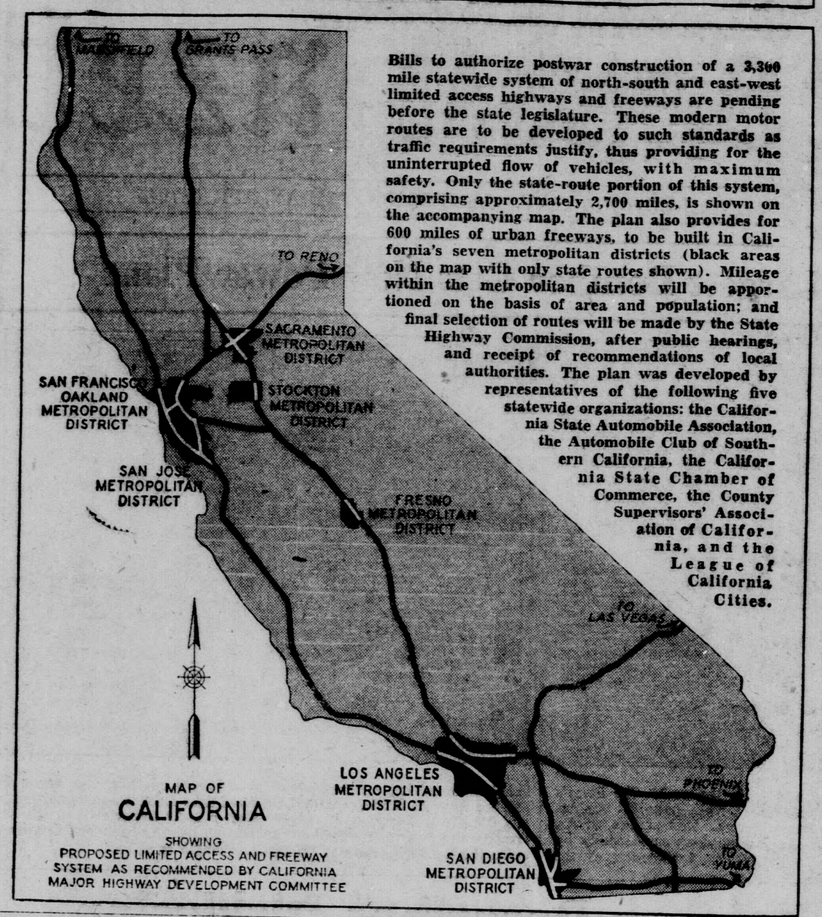
Under the leadership of Milt Gooding, the new Cubs have enthusiastically begun preparations for the paper collection. Pack 22 was organized the latter part of February. The 35 Cubs are making a house to house canvass of the section of Redwood City assigned to them and expect to salvage a record amount.

Cub Pack 49, with Al Williams as cubmaster, has also joined in the drive. The Pack is sponsored by the Exchange Club. The club's Scout Troop, 149, has begun a survey of the section of Redwood City assigned to them, it was reported.

Redwood City residents should tie their waste paper—old books, newspapers, magazines, cardboard cartons and boxes, wrapping paper, brown bags and scraps—with twine or string. The bundles should be placed on curbstones not later than 10 a.m. Sunday, when trucks will begin collections.

Persons who have large amounts of paper, too bulky to handle, should call Frank DePatta, city salvage chairman, by Saturday to have special trucks to pick up the bundles.

Modern Highways for California



MAP OF CALIFORNIA
SHOWING PROPOSED LIMITED ACCESS AND FREEWAY SYSTEM AS RECOMMENDED BY CALIFORNIA MAJOR HIGHWAY DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

Bills to authorize postwar construction of a 3,360 mile statewide system of north-south and east-west limited access highways and freeways are pending before the state legislature. These modern motor routes are to be developed to such standards as traffic requirements justify, thus providing for the uninterrupted flow of vehicles, with maximum safety. Only the state-route portion of this system, comprising approximately 2,700 miles, is shown on the accompanying map. The plan also provides for 600 miles of urban freeways, to be built in California's seven metropolitan districts (black areas on the map with only state routes shown). Mileage within the metropolitan districts will be apportioned on the basis of area and population; and final selection of routes will be made by the State Highway Commission, after public hearings, and receipt of recommendations of local authorities. The plan was developed by representatives of the following five statewide organizations: the California State Automobile Association, the Automobile Club of Southern California, the California State Chamber of Commerce, the County Supervisors' Association of California, and the League of California Cities.

Highway Patrol Aids Rescue Of Seven Navy Airmen

The California Highway Patrol from San Mateo County was called to the Coastside between Sharp Park and San Francisco late Sunday to direct traffic when thousands of Easter holiday sightseers watched the dramatic rescue of seven navy airmen and their pet dog by small craft which bucked 35-foot waves to bring them ashore after their plane pancaked in the wind-churned ocean.

Their plane—a Martin Mariner inbound from Hawaii—was forced down by motor trouble less than 35 miles from their destination and the crew credited the pilot with saving their lives in the dangerous landing.

Hot Bed Outside Basement Window Easily Managed

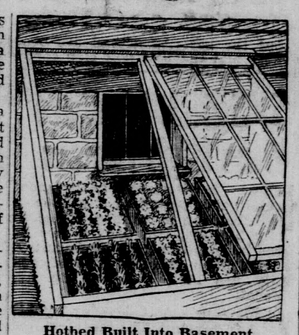
For the Victory gardener who has a basement window with southern exposure, it is possible to build a practical hot-bed which is more easily watched, aired and watered than the standard type.

In front of the window make a shallow excavation, about a foot deep. The size must be figured carefully, so that a frame set in this excavation can be covered by window or hot-bed sash. As in the case of other hot-beds, a glass substitute may be used on the sash, if desired.

Build a frame to fit in the excavation. The sides must slant sharply from a point above the window, almost to the ground. Fit the sash on this frame, using hinges at the top so the sash may easily be raised for ventilation. Earth may be banked around the frame to keep out the cold; and the sides should be as tight as possible to keep out the wind.

The frame may have to be caulked where it joins the foundation to prevent drafts, otherwise it is built like the garden type, using a standard or odd size sash as you choose.

Heat is supplied to this bed by opening the basement window, and allowing the heated basement air to enter the bed. The window is left open at night, and may often be closed during the day, when the sun is shining on the bed. Hotbeds of this type have been tried and tested, and although they do not maintain temperatures as high as other kinds the heat will be more even, and the ventilation much better.



Hotbed Built Into Basement Casement.

What to sow in a hot-bed? The tender vegetables that need a long season, such as tomatoes, peppers and eggplants, the hardier cabbage and cauliflower, a few cucumbers or summer squash in pots sunk into the earth so they may be transplanted readily, all may be started here.

Most of the annual flowers will benefit from an early start here if you do not plan to put them in the cold frame, otherwise use the hot-bed only for the tender or slow ones.

The main things to watch are temperature and drafts. Ventilation is necessary on warm days, and for very short periods on cooler days. Sow seed thinly and water bed moderately when planting; thin out when needed.

Deadline Nears For Tax Payments

Apr. 20 is the deadline for the second and final installment of both city and county taxes for 1944-45, city and county tax collectors reminded taxpayers today. Residents must have their payments in by 5 p.m. on that date or be declared delinquent.

Both Mrs. Nelle Miramontes, city tax collector, and Ralph MacArthur, county collector, report that individual installments are being turned in earlier than in previous years. Mrs. Miramontes said $266,568 in taxes is yet to be collected.

Approximately 65 per cent of Redwood City property owners paid their year's taxes in the first installment. The city rate is $1.49. Mrs. Miramontes reports that $203,647 remains to be collected.

MacArthur said that 75 per cent of the total county tax of $4,250,000 has been collected. Payments are being mailed more rapidly than in previous months, he added. To date, $1,000,000 of the total assessment remains to be paid.

"However, we expect only 1 per cent of the taxpayers to be delinquent this year," MacArthur said. Banks and utilities usually pay their taxes during the last three days before deadline and thus the total swells. During March, $150,000 more in taxes was collected than during the same month last year. The number of county delinquents last year totaled 98¼ per cent.

W. D. Keyston Recuperating

Wounded in Germany while fighting with the Ninth Army, T/Sgt. William D. Keyston, II, of Atherton, is now recuperating in a hospital in Paris, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garton Keyston have been informed.

Keyston, whose name appears on a War Department casualty list made public Monday, was hit in the leg by fragments from an exploding shell on Mar. 2.

The 22-year-old infantryman has been overseas since October, and entered the service in July, 1943, shortly after his graduation from the New Mexico Military Institute.

His parents reside at Selby Ln. and Tuscaloosa Ave.

Capt. Robert Todd Killed in Action

Capt. Robert M. Todd, prominent Peninsulan and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. C. Zimmerman of Burlingame, was killed in action recently while on a routine training flight near Courtland Army Air Field, Ala.

Captain Todd remained at the controls of his blazing four-motored bomber until the other members of the crew had jumped to safety. His delay caused his death because his parachute failed to open, due to lack of altitude.

The 27-year-old officer enlisted in the army in April, 1941, and had been an instructor at several air fields in the South since receiving his commission at Lowry Field, Colo. He was a native of San Francisco. Captain Todd attended Pacific Heights School and Galileo High School in San Francisco and was a graduate of the College of the Pacific.

He is survived by a widow, Wilma Taylor Todd, formerly of Lodi, and a 2½-year-old daughter, Roberta Jean Todd.

Nurse Retains Custody of Child

Mrs. Barbara Kent, nurse at Dibble General Hospital, Menlo Park, retains custody of the small daughter of Mrs. Edith Bollinger of San Francisco, with Juvenile Court Judge A. R. Cotton Monday afternoon granting Mrs. Kent's petition to have the girl declared an abandoned child.

The decision may be appealed, however, Edmund Scott, who with Paul Madsen of San Francisco represented Mrs. Bollinger, Monday asked Judge Cotton to disqualify himself on the ground that he had expressed his opinion before he had heard Mrs. Bollinger's side of the case. Judge Cotton denied talking the case over with anyone.

Probation Officer John S. Cowgill admitted on the stand that he had made no investigation of the case.

Scott said he advised Mrs. Bollinger to appeal the case to the District Court of Appeals.

Mrs. Kent, who was granted a final judgment of divorce by Superior Court Judge Maxwell McNutt from Hamilton Kent last week, declared that Mrs. Bollinger gave the girl, Heather Ann, to her shortly after her birth, almost three years ago.

Mrs. Bollinger's application for a writ of habeas corpus filed in superior court, seeking to regain custody of the child, was discharged by Judge Cotton.

John B. Overton Killed in Action

Pvt. John B. Overton of Redwood City, seriously wounded in Germany in December, was Monday listed as dead, according to a War Department list made public.

Private Overton, who went overseas in September, served as battery electrician of his infantry company, and entered the service a year ago.

Formerly employed as a defense worker in Redwood City, he lived here for three years before entering the army.

His Redwood City address is listed as 59 Laurel St., in care of Noma Bolliger, a friend.

Approximately two-thirds of the fresh fish produced in the United States comes from the Great Lakes.

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

We trust the Easter bunny brought all you good commuters and other readers of this column a well-filled basket of brightly-colored eggs—and a full measure of peace, if not complete happiness. The war still casts a shadow over what otherwise might have been a happy holiday for all.

A low impulse seized us Saturday night just before retiring. We have been so short of meat and red points we were sorely tempted to set a trap for the Easter bunny. But we are glad now we did not, because, while we might have enjoyed meat for Sunday dinner, our selfishness would have made thousands of little boys and girls unhappy when the Easter bunny failed to call on them. The meat situation, however, remains very acute.

And that reminds us of a story about Judge Ed McAuliffe. It seems the crows are over-numerous in the Sacramento Valley this year and sportsmen have been invited by state officials to help eliminate some of the predatory pilferers. So the judge went shooting and bagged himself a couple of plump corn-fed crows. It is said the Judge brought the birds home, dressed them, put them in the ice box and then roasted them for his Easter Sunday dinner. (You don't often hear of a judge "eating crow!")

Had a couple of complaints (?) on last week's column. Lu Reiss was disappointed because we didn't comment on Utility Commissioner Cahill's admission that the city bought a "pile of junk" in the Market Street Rwy. (Why comment on the obvious?). Another commuter thought we should have expressed views on the program of Andy Moran (port superintendent) for the complete industrialization of Redwood City, with the implication that commuters are a retarding influence in the community.

It should be remembered that our space is limited and that we cannot possibility cover every subject that may seem appropriate for this column. Editorial comment, incidentally, is the special prerogative of the management, none other. We may have transgressed a time or two, but our comment (we hope) is always harmless if not humorous.

Speaking of "junk," you have heard it over the radio and read it in the papers that "this country is scrapping 5000 automobiles a day." We simply don't believe it. If those figures are right, a lot of people are sneaking out to the junkyards and driving those cars back into circulation. Ask any pedestrian if he has noticed any diminution in the number of cars on the road, especially when he is trying to cross a wide and busy intersection.

Commuter vignettes: Elmer Ross at lunch in the men's grill at the St. Francis trying to sell an order of fireplugs to a visiting fire chief. . . . Wrex Cruse at a nearby table trying to convince a couple of press agents that the launching of TWA's 4-motor stratoliner at Mills Field Easter Sunday is page-one news. . . . Bill Curran trying to win an argument with Chester Armstrong on the 5:21 (any evening, while Lu Winkenwerder and Lloyd Liebman referee). . . . Clarence ("LSMFT") Brizee explaining to a dear friend why he can't get him a carton of cigarettes. . . . Tom Cutting addressing someone as "Shorty."

An Englishman visiting in New York recently wanted the orchestra in a night club to play a certain popular American song, but he could not recall the name. "You know," he told the band leader, "it has something to do with claustrophobia." The orchestra promptly played "Don't Fence Me In." Which reminds us of the questionnaire a personnel man sent to all of his employees. One of the questions was "Do you suffer from claustrophobia?" All the men answered, "No," and all the women answered, "Yes." Subsequent investigation revealed that none of the men knew what the word meant, but they wouldn't admit they suffered from it, whatever it was. One of the women looked it up and passed the word around it meant "fear of confinement."

Our young son, Ray, was reading jokes out of his Boys Life magazine. He came to one which he didn't "get," and he asked us to explain it to him. "Read it again, loud," we asked. Here is what he read: "He—Where did you get that funny looking hat? She—I can't tell you; it's a military secret." We didn't get it either, and asked to see the book. The punch-line read: "I can't tell you; it's a millinery secret." To redeem himself, Ray told us about the scholarly old gentleman who walked into the library and saw his tiny grandson pouring over the encyclopedia. Asked grandpa: "Sonny, why aren't you reading Mother Goose?" Replied Sonny, "Aw, she's a dead duck."

We were sorry to learn that Commuter Olin Nuckolls is ill and has been taken to Mills Memorial Hospital; also that Thomas Giannini, Jr., who has been ailing for some time, had to be hospitalized for treatments. A speedy and complete recovery to you both!

Acquit Truck Driver Of Mayhem Charge

Manuel George Garcia, 42-year-old Pescadero truck driver, Tuesday was acquitted by Superior Court Judge A. R. Cotton of a charge of mayhem, but Wednesday he faced a $50,000 damage suit filed by Benigno P. Reyes, a Mexican national, for the loss of an eye in a fight with Garcia.

Reyes and Garcia engaged in a fight at Pescadero on Jan. 28 following a party and Reyes lost his left eye as a result of the fracas. Reyes seeks $25,000 compensatory damages and $25,000 punitive damages.

U.S. Ruling Hits $70,000 Port Income

Objecting to a report of a maritime commission examiner, attorneys for the Redwood City Board of Port Commissioners will soon file a bill of exceptions in the case which will determine payment of approximately $70,000 in accumulated fees owed to this port, it was voted Tuesday night at a regular meeting of the board.

The findings of Examiner G. O. Basham, although not final, will be placed before the U. S. Maritime Commission in the near future, accompanied by the bill of exceptions filed by the municipally-owned port, A. A. Moran, port manager, said.

Principal objections to the examiner's report allege that the report is not in conformity with the evidence in the case, that the examiner considered the contract with Permanente as being applicable to all companies, and several legal points are in error.

Should the Maritime Commission uphold the ruling of the examiner, the Port of Redwood City would be unable to place a service charge on bulk cement, a charge which involved approximately $70,000 in back payments and $26,000 yearly fees in the unloading of 130,000 tons of bulk cement.

During Tuesday's meeting, it was reported that Norwood B. Smith, Palo Alto realtor, and George F. Shade of San Francisco had been appointed to make a new appraisal of the Port of Redwood City for the navy.

Kendall B. (Pete) Towne, who was sworn into the office of port commissioner at Monday night's council meeting, attended his first port commission meeting Tuesday.

Also present were Comsrs. Henry Beeger, Edmund Scott, Ralph Morser and John McCarthy.

Determination of rental on the port which the navy took over on May 1, 1944, has been pending for 11 months as the two parties have failed to agree on the amount of money.

Proposed purchase of additional industrial lands near the port was also discussed, although no definite action was taken.

24-Hour Ambulance Service Starts

The long-sought 24-hour county-owned and operated ambulance service became a realtiy Monday with the inauguration of the service.

The county now owns three ambulances, one stationed at Daly City and two at Community Hospital. One of the ambulances is equipped with a two-way radio system and the other two will be as soon as they are available, County Executive Frederick Peterson, who announced that the service officially started Monday, said.

The ambulances are painted white and trimmed in green. Each ambulance is equipped to carry three patients and each has first aid supplies.

Five ambulance drivers and attendants have been hired for 24-hour duty and an additional telephone operator has been hired for night service.

Community Hospital will be the "clearing house" for all accident cases, Peterson said. Highway patrolmen and police officers will contact the hospital, which in turn will dispatch an ambulance. The system is in the experimental stage and improvements will be made as time goes on, Peterson declared.

Accident victims will be taken to the nearest hospital.

The ambulance service at the hospital will be under the direction of R. F. Smith, new business manager of Community Hospital, Peterson said.

Twenty-four hour county-operated ambulance service was recommended by Peterson after suggestions from a citizen's committee. The program was approved by the board of supervisors, which voted $10,096 to carry out the program for the remainder of the fiscal year.

Cigaret Fire Causes Damage to Building

Redwood City firemen Monday confined damage from a blaze at 858 Main St. to a scorched wall, fire department records showed.

The blaze, reported at 4:59 p.m., was believed started by a carelessly thrown cigaret which ignited rubbish next to the building, firemen said.

Spanish explorers in 1508 introduced American timber to Europe, believing it would cure many serious diseases of mankind.

Good dishes requiring no or low points

Even if you're down to your last few ration points there's no need to look forward to dull, skimpy meals. Let ingenuity take the place of points and serve meals so delightfully different there'll be no suspicion of point skimping. Here are recipes for two dishes that will receive acclaim even if your points are few.

CHEESE FONDUE

1 cup milk
1 cup soft bread crumbs, lightly packed
1 tbsp. shortening
½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
3 cups coarsely grated American cheese
3 eggs

Heat milk in 1½ to 2-qt. double boiler. Add crumbs, shortening, seasonings, and cheese. Stir until cheese is melted. Cool slightly. Beat egg whites with rotary beater until stiff but not dry. Beat egg yolks with same beater until thick and lemon-colored. Add to milk and crumb mixture. Fold in egg whites. Pour into well-greased 2-qt. casserole or baking dish. Bake in slow oven (325° F.) 1 hour, or until firm to touch. Serve at once with Egg Sauce (recipe follows). Serves 6 to 8.

EGG SAUCE

2 tbsps. shortening
2 tbsps. all-purpose flour
1 cup milk
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. prepared mustard
2 hard-cooked eggs

Melt shortening in double boiler. Blend in flour. Add milk gradually, stirring until smooth. Cook over rapidly boiling water 10 to 15 minutes, or until thickened. Add salt, mustard, and coarsely diced eggs. Makes 1½ cups sauce.

TAMALE PIE

1 lb. lean beef, pork or lamb
1 cup hominy grits
½ cup finely chopped onion
2 cups cooked tomatoes
½ cup chopped ripe olives
⅔ cup seeded raisins
1 tbsp. chili powder
1 tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. pepper
2 tbsps. butter or margarine

Cut meat into ½-inch cubes; simmer in salted water to cover about 45 minutes, or until tender. Drain broth from meat; measure, adding boiling water to make 3 cups liquid; add hominy grits to boiling broth. Cook 10 minutes. Place half of the hominy grits in bottom of well greased 1½-qt. baking dish; cover with remaining ingredients; top with hominy grits. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 45 minutes, or until well browned. Brush top with butter or margarine about 10 minutes before removing from oven. Serves 6 to 8.
